COURSE DESCRIPTION & OVERVIEW

This course is an intermediate level course that is designed for South Carolina attorneys and magistrate/municipal judges.

Includes 8 Total & 2 LEPR (Ethics) & 1 MH/SA CLE Credit    $255.00    _____

This seminar is a survey of selected South Carolina and federal law and recent legal developments. It will help the registrant organize and deepen his or her understanding of South Carolina Gun Law as well as effectively counsel, advocate and represent clients. Credits will apply to a registrant's 2016/2017 CLE cycle or can be carried forward as provided in the Rules.

If this option is chosen, the registrant will complete a total of 8 hours credit.

There will be coffee and continental breakfast beginning at 8:30am. The program will start at 9:00am. A hot catered lunch from a local restaurant will be provided and the course will continue through lunch in the interest of time. The live speakers will remain after the program for questions and answers.

The course is designed around the book Shaw's 2016 South Carolina Gun Law (as updated) and is taught by the authors and special guests. Each registrant will receive a copy of the book as part of the registration fee. Instructors include preeminent gun law litigator and author Stephen Halbrook, PhD., Esq., practicing South Carolina attorneys, ATF agents, SCDNR, Law Enforcement, and other guests.

To reserve your seat, please visit scgunlaw.com or call (864) 834-4404. Your book and course materials will be provided at the seminar registration. Tuition is refundable up to, and including, one (1) week prior to the course.
